

OUR RAYMER FAMILY HISTORY 1782-1982

The history of all Kentucky Raymers (and all Raymers that left Kentucky at a later time) begins with Abraham Raymer Sr.

Abraham Raymer Sr. may have been born around 1730 or 1740 - perhaps in Pennsylvania or even England or Germany. The early Pennsylvania Raymers spelled the name - Romer, Raimer, Raner and Ramer. The wife of "old" Abraham may have been Senalah.

The first record of Abraham Raymer in Kentucky is in the early 1780's (in Jefferson County by 1781-1782). He received 400 acres of land there, and was appointed by the court to be the administrator for someone's estate by 1783. He was an early pioneer of Kentucky (and no doubt an Indian fighter). He was one of the very first pioneers and settlers of the Severns Valley Fort (now Elizabethtown, Ky.). That date would be 1780-1785. Since he was among the first pioneers of Kentucky, he was a contemporary of James Harrod (who founded the first settlement in Kentucky - Harrodsburg in 1774), as well as the famous Daniel Boone (started Boonesboro in 1775). In fact, Daniel Boone was born in the same county of Pennsylvania that many of the Raymers were born in. So, did Abraham come to Kentucky with Boone? Maybe not - it is not known. He may have came down on flatboats - on the Ohio River, as so many did. While Abraham Sr. was in Jefferson County, Kentucky, another famous family was also there. Abraham Lincoln (the grandfather of President Lincoln) was killed by Indians while there. In fact, his oldest son - Mordecai Lincoln, not only killed the Indian, but rescued his younger brother - Thomas (who later was to marry and be the father of the 16th President). The Lincoln Family had also came to Virginia and Kentucky from Eastern Pennsylvania.

By the late 1780's, many pioneers began leaving the protected forts of the time. Abraham Raymer was one of those who left for his own land - in which to build a house. He received a 250 acre Virginia Land Grant on the South Fork of Nolin River (I have a copy of that grant). At this same time, Thomas Lincoln received land on the same river (which is now near Hodgenville, Ky.). In 1809 the future President Lincoln was born in the same land. By 1787 Abraham Raymer Jr. married Mrs. Margaret Cruse (Crews) in Nelson Co. Ky. Soon, Abraham Sr.'s daughter - Catherine would marry in Nelson & Hardin Co.

The first record we have of Abraham Raymer and family being in what is now Warren County, Ky. was in 1792. Then, he was recorded as a taxpayer - as well as Abraham Jr. "Old" Abraham was listed with two males over 16, plus 2 horses and 14 cattle. He was permitted to run a ferry across Barren River in 1792 (Oct. 23). By doing so, he became one of the very first to run a ferry in the State of Kentucky (admitted to the Union as a state in 1792).

Abraham Raymer Sr. is recorded in history. From - History of Kentucky by Collins (Vol. 2, p.739), we find this amusing story.

Four miles above Bowling Green, Kentucky on the river is McFadens old station. Some stories are connected with it, and one of which we relate: A dashing young Virginian came to the station and bragged that he could outrun any man "in all Kaintuck". McFaden, who was a quizzical old genius, asked if he would run barefoot or shod (shoes), and was answered - barefoot. McFaden said I will set the time and place and will risk a gallon of whiskey that I find a man to beat you. The bet was made and the day fixed. The old hunter Raymer was sent for. The two parties went to the tract selected by McFaden. It was probably the most flinty bed in all the county. Both men started. They had gone but a few yards when the Virginian was compelled to hold up. But as Raymers feet were as hard as a buffalo's, he kept ahead like a quarter horse, to the great amazement of old McFaden and friends. That ground has since been called "Raymers Race track".

The date above would be 1798. McFaden's Station was the first permanent settlement in Warren and surrounding area and was located near the present Porter Pike.

By 1800 or so, Abraham Sr. had died. He may have lived his last days with Michael, his son. At that time they lived in the Ohio or Grayson County area. Abe Jr. was in Edmonson Co. by this time. He was there when Edmonson was formed and did serve on its first grand jury. By the mid 1840's both Michael and Abraham Jr. were dead. Most of their descendants have remained in this area of Ky., even now. So our Raymers have been in Kentucky for 200 years, 1782-1982. All of us here today are descended from that first Abraham Raymer. That is our Raymer Family History 1782-1982.

RAYMER FAMILY ASSOCIATION
LLOYD M. RAYMER-----PRESIDENT
Bowling Green, Kentucky

EILEEN RAYMER--- VICE-PRESIDENT
Ellsinore, Missouri

PURPOSE AND OBJECTIVES

The Raymer Family Association was formed in January, 1980 by Lloyd M. Raymer. The aim and purpose of the association being; bringing all Raymers closer together, to hold family reunions-when possible, and to collect, compile and preserve Raymer family information. Our newsletter Raymer Roots " is published twice yearly(January and July).

EDITORIAL POLICY

Members are invited to contribute family material, which will be used as space allows. Raymer Roots assumes no responsibility for errors or fact or opinion made by contributors. Publishing only reliable genealogical or historical information is our intent. Your editor reserves the right to make the final decision when to publish written material. Unless otherwise indicated, materials used in this publication are from the files and research of the editor-Lloyd M. Raymer.

FROM THE EDITORS DESK - A PROGRESS REPORT

The Raymer Family Association will soon be in its second year. I hope all members have enjoyed our two newsletters of 1980, and look forward to reading this issue as well as our Summer-1981 issue. Perhaps someone has found that long-lost ancestor from the pages of Raymer Roots. Or maybe someone has become more interested in searching about their "roots". In either case, the troubles and problems of publishing this newsletter are quite worthwhile. If anyone has a certain problem in their Raymer research, or would desire that a family tree lineage chart be drawn up, please feel free to contact myself or the two vice-presidents listed above. At this date, some 63 people receives the two newsletters for 1980. This does not include the libraries nor the genealogical/historical societies across this country that receive them. Only 20 people have renewed their subscriptions-for 1981- so lets hurry and do so. This issue is the biggest one yet! Our Raymer Family Association and Raymer Roots are completely a non-profit making body. Not one cent is retained by anyone. The dues are used to defray the cost of postage, supplies, printing, advertising and other cost. A small amount is used for research & purchasing printed material. So far, we are still in the "black". So from Wilbur Westray, Eileen Raymer and myself, have a MERRY CHRISTMAS and a very HAPPY NEW YEAR!!!

EARLY PIONEER SETTLERS:

Harrodsburg was the first permanent settlement (fort) in Kentucky in 1774. In 1775, Daniel Boone settled Boonesboro. Soon other forts or "stations" were built and this gave the pioneers protection from the Indians. Two such forts in the area of Jefferson, Hardin or Nelson Counties were - Severns Valley (near Elizabethtown), and Nolynn. These settlements were started around 1779, thus they were among the first in the entire western half of Kentucky. List of names of the first settlers in Severns Valley, which is probably nearly all who had located at this station down to about the first of the-year 1785 and some who arrived-later". One of 44 men was ABRAHAM RAIMER.

RAYMER FOLKLORE

Four miles above Bowling Green, on the River (Barren River) is McFadins Old Station. Some anecdotes are connected with it. One of which we relate: A clashing young Virginian came to the station, and began his brag that he could out run any man in all Kaintuck. McFadin, who was a quizzical old genius, inquired whether he would run barefooted or shod, and was promptly answered barefoot. Let me fix time and place, said McFadin, and I will risk a gallon of whiskey & I'll find a man to beat you. The bet was made and the day fixed. The old hunter Raymer was sent for. The parties departed to the tract selected by McFadin. It was probably the most Flinty bed in all the country. At the word the racers started. They had gone but a few yards when the Virginian was compelled to hold up. But as Raymer's feet were as hard as buffalo's, he kept ahead like a quarterhorse, to the great amusement of old McFadin and his friends. That ground has since been called "Reamer's Race Tract." The part of Logan Co., Ky., which later became Warren Co., is here represented by the McFadin's & Abraham Raymer, who is mentioned as the fast runner in Finleys history.

RAYMER FOLKLORE

Around 1855 Abraham and Sarah (Johnson) Raymer and their eight children left Grayson Co., Ky. and came to what is now Carter Co., Missouri. They settled near Ellsinore, Mo. (on property where the Raymer cemetery is now located.) When the Civil War began, Isaac(one of Abraham's sons) joined the Union forces. He fought in the famous battle at Pilot Knob, and received a leg wound-for which he received a $9 per month lifetime pension. One winter night in 1862-3, Abraham went to the barn to see what was disturbing the livestock. He never returned. It is believed he was killed by Southern sympathizers. His body was never found. Sarah lived to be about 85 years old and was buried in the Raymer cemetery near Ellsinore.

William Age Raymer

William Age (b. ca/1810-ca/1869) married his second wife-Nancy Raymer, around 1854 in Edmonson Co., Ky.-? Nancy was born about 1815. William and Nancy had 3 children; Nancy Jane(b.1855), William or Milesberry (b.ca/1856), and Melissa Ann (b.1858). (William Age had 10 children by his first wife). After William's death, Nancy lived with the family of Edward "Ned" Blair. She was reputedly kin to a "Will" Raymer. Any information on Nancy Raymer's parents, etc., would be greatly appreciated. I am also interested in any Doyle-Raymer connections in Edmonson County, Kentucky.

Clint Raymer

Clint Raymer was born in Butler Co., Kentucky on September 20, 1894. His parents were Cord & Emma(Colburn) Raymer. By the time Clint was 18 years old, he had already completed elementary school, finished his studies at the Normal School in MORGANTOWN and was teaching school at Dripping Springs. On June 12, 1915 he married Ida Ashley. Mr. Clint was a salesman for a hardware firm for 12 years, and also ran a grocery store at Roundhill for some time. In the late 1920's, he was elected State Representative for Butler and Edmonson Counties. Around 1929 he bought a farm which would later expand to over 1,000 acres. He became more involved in agriculture over the years; as a county committeeman of A.A.A., and a director of the Big Ready Watershed Conservation District. He was a member of the Bethlehem Church of Christ and served as an elder. For over a year he wrote a column in the Green River Republican newspaper. Mr. Raymer passed away on Feb. 25, 1975, but he also passed on to his children and family the great attributes of honesty, kindness, helpfulness and virtue. He never failed to instill in the minds of his children; Mable, Macon and Marlon the idea that they attend school of higher education. All three children finished Western Kentucky University. Mable became a teacher. Macon received a Masters degree from the University of Kentucky and a county supervisor for the Farmers Home Administration before his retirement. Marlon also attended U.K. as well as the University of Pennsylvania and is also a county supervisor of the F.H.A. Clint Raymer was an outstanding man. He was a good citizen, active in the affairs of his community, a family man and above all - a Christian. His example, good deeds and influence remains with us.

Clifton Bradley Raymer(Cliff B.) was born on August 12, 1902 at Roundhill, in Butler County, Kentucky. He was the sixth of fourteen children of Cord & Emma (Colburn) Raymer. After completing elementary school in the local area and attending high school in Brownsville, he taught at Hunts school (a one-room school) around 1921. Later Mr. Raymer attended Western Kentucky Normal in Bowling Green to better prepare himself to teach. After that, he attended Bowling Green Business University to acquire various business skills. In 1923 Cliff B. was employed as an office clerk for the United States Government at the Woodbury (Ky.) Lock and Dam on Green River. At Woodbury he met and married Theresa Gibbs. They were married in Morgantown on April 19, 1924. Soon after this time, he was transferred to Leavenworth, Indiana and even later he worked in Louisville, Kentucky. While in Louisville, he attended law school at night and did graduate from the Jefferson School of Law in 1933. For most of the thirty-two years that Mr. Raymer worked for the U.S. Corps of Engineers(U.S. Army), he spent the majority of his time as an attorney for them. He was in charge of the Real Estate Division of the Louisville office, a position in which he participated in the promotion and accomplishment of many important civil and military projects in Kentucky, Indiana, Illinois, Ohio, West Virginia and Tennessee. Of these, two very important projects were those at the Oak Ridge, Tennessee Atomic Plant, and the Wolf Creek Dam Project in Russell Co., Ky. In 1952 he was cited by the Secretary of the Army and the Chief of Army Engineers for outstanding service to the Corps. After he retired from Government work, Mr. Raymer came to Bowling Green and soon he and his son operated the Cliff B. Raymer Funeral Home. He received his Kentucky Funeral Director's license in 1960. In 1964 he decided to practice law. By 1973 his law firm was Raymer & Reynolds. The firm specialized in title and deed work. On May 24, 1975 tragedy struck. Cliff B. was killed by an unknown assassin, as he tried to protect his home from being burglarized. Cliff B. and Theresa had two children; Lota Adelle Lawson and Cliff B. Jr. (who died in 1962). Mr. Raymer was well known as a kind, honest and hard working man. He had a keen, sharp mind and was loved and admired by all. AMERICAN PLACE NAMES & TOWNS---RAYMER NEW RAYMER, COLORADO

The Town of Raymer was named after George Raymer, Assistant Chief Engineer of the Burlington & Missouri Railroad. The land for the town(157 acres)was purchased and laid out in 1888 and it was also settled that year. At one time, the town boasted a newspaper, bank, grocery store, livery stable, saloon and hardware store. By 1894, many people were leaving town. The town was revitalized in 1915 due to the Homestead Act. In 1910, the town was changed to New Raymer- so the name would not conflict with Ramah, Colorado". Today New Raymer has a population of 80 and the railroad is now gone. The area around the town is dry land with wheat farms and big cattle ranches. New Raymer is located about 100 miles Northeast of Denver, in a very flat & arid area of Colorado. (Source: History of Raymer, Colorado by Franklin Jones(1943) p. 8&11, also the recollections of Frank & Wilda Sweigard (both were born and reared in that area), of 1533 Sixth, St. Greely, Colorado 80631).

RAMER, TENNESSEE

Several years before the Civil War, John Ramer gave a portion of right-of-way to the Mobile & Ohio Railroad. When the station was built, it was named for the donor of the land- Ramer's Station. The town of Ramer, Tennessee (in McNairy Co.) celebrated its 100th Anniversary on April 21, 1957. (Source: The West Tennessee Historical Society Vol.11, p.137). Note- Ramer, Tennessee is located on Highway #57 in the southern part of McNairy, about 7 miles from the Mississippi state line.

TIDBITS

----RAYMER ROOTS is now deposited in these various places; The Filson Club of Louisville, KY, Butler Co., Ky. Historical/Genealogical Society of Morgantown, Ky., the Southern Ky. Genealogical Society of Bowling Green, Ky., the St. Louis Genealogical Society of St. Louis, MO, the State Historical Society of Wisconsin-Madison, Wisc., and the New York City Public Library.

----Thanks again, Eileen Raymer for the gift subscription you wish to be sent (1981 issues) to the St. Louis Genealogical Society. Perhaps some of the other members will also send RAYMER ROOTS to their favorite library or even some of their own family.
----Lets be thinking about planning a Raymer Reunion for next summer? More on that in our next issue.

Since its formation, the Raymer Family Association has purchased two books of genealogical interest for all members to use. If you think they contain helpful information on your lines, just send me the names of interest plus a stamped envelope and I will check the books for you.

1. 1850 Edmonson County, Kentucky Census.
2. Grayson Co., Ky. Miscellaneous (Deaths, 1810 Census & Cemetery Records).

I need information on George B. Raymer born 1865 in Butler Co., Ky. He went to Texas as a young man, (Nolan Co. area). in 1885 or 1890. He never returned to Kentucky, but he did have a son Lawrence Raymer. Would appreciate help on these two names.

According to my aunt, our ancestor who immigrated from Germany was Johann Michael Remer/Raymer, born 1715 in Germany who came to America in 1738. He settled in Fredericks County, Maryland and was an elder in the Lutheran church. His burial information stated that he had two sons and six daughters and the sons died before his death in 1800.

If my ancestor Abraham was his son, he was obviously not dead in 1800 but had already settled in KY, as early as 1783. In all the church records that I could find, there was not any information on his two sons; so it may have been assumed that both had died. However, there was much information on his six daughters.

One of these six daughters, Elizabeth Ann Remer, married James Edward Beatty in 1765. By the time most of these church records began, my Abraham Raymer would have been about eighteen years old and more than likely, on the move (which appears to be characteristic of his behavior).

We do know that Abraham married his second wife Sybilla Nestler in Bedford County, PA in 1783. Abraham was part of the Cumberland County, PA militia along with several "Beatty" family members during the Revolutionary War (Bedford County was formed from Cumberland County in 1771). Could it be that Abraham left Fredericks County, Maryland with his sister, Elizabeth Ann Remer Beatty, and settled in Pennsylvania?

Following possible family ties, we find a James and William Beatty in Grayson County, KY on the 1810 census, same page as Abraham's son Michael Ramer (Raymer). This area, of course, was where many of Abraham's family settled.

I only have a few clues and bits of information. I welcome help or correction on this possible connection.

RAYMER FOLKLORE

Four miles above Bowling Green, on the River (Barren River) is McFadin's Old Station. Some anecdotes are connected with it. One of which we relate: A clashing young Virginian came to the station, and began his brag that he could out run any man in all Kaintuck. McFadin, who was a quizzical old genius, inquired whether he would run barefooted or shod, and was promptly answered barefoot. Let me fix time and place, said McFadin, and I will risk a gallon of whiskey & I'll find a man to beat you. The bet was made and the day fixed. The old hunter Raymer was sent for. The parties departed to the tract selected by McFadin. It was probably the most Flinty bed in all the country. At the word the racers started. They had gone but a few yards when the Virginian was compelled to hold up. But as Raymer's feet were as hard as buffalo's, he kept ahead like a quarterhorse, to the great amusement of old McFadin and his friends. That ground has since been called "Raymers Race Tract." The part of Logan Co., Ky. which later became Warren Co., is here represented by the McFadin's & Abraham Raymer, who is mentioned as the fast runner in Finley's history.

Abraham Raymer Sr's first eight children were from a previous wife/wives. He married Sybilla (Lincking) Nestler in 1783. Sybilla was married first to Christian Nestler on 3 Apr 1769 in Cumberland County, Penn (Church Records). Abraham and Sybilla had one daughter, Susanna, in 1790. Sybilla was born in 1750 in PA or Germany and died in 1798 at Grayson Co., KY. Another potential wife was named Sevelah or, this may be the same woman with a different spelling.

Abraham Ramer's family lived in South Carolina during the late 1770's. He arrived in Kentucky by 1780 and settled near Severns Valley near Elizabeth town, with 2 sons, Abraham Jr. and Michael.

Minute Book A. At a court held for Jefferson County, Kentucky, December 03, 1781- It appeared to the Court that the following persons are entitled by virtue of an act of the assembly passed May 1781, to 400 acres of land each. And, orders that the County Surveyor lay off to them accordingly. One of these persons was Abraham Raymer.

While Abraham Sr. was in Jefferson County, Kentucky, another famous family was also there. Abraham Lincoln (the grandfather of President Lincoln) was killed by Indians while there. In fact, his oldest son - Mordecai Lincoln - not only killed the Indian, but rescued his younger brother - Thomas (who later was to be the father of the 16th President). The Lincoln Family had also come to Virginia and Kentucky from Eastern Pennsylvania.

Abraham received two Virginia Land Grants, one for 400 acres on Caney Creek, a branch of Rough River (1783) and the other for 250 acres on the South Fork of Nolin River (1785).

Abraham Senior's first eight children were from a previous wife (or wives). He married Sybilla Lincking Nestler, the widow of Christian Nestler in 1783. Daughter Susanna, born about 1790, was Sybilla's daughter.

At a Court held for Jefferson County, Kentucky, September 03, 1783- The administrator of the Estate of Christian Neitler (Nestler), deceased, granted to Abraham Raymour, (Raymer): With John Handley and Jacob Barrackman as his securities, Bond of 300 English Pounds. Source, The Register of Kentucky Historical Society, Vol. 53, p55.

In 1787, Abraham (Sr) and son Michael are shown on tithables (taxes) in Nelson County, Kentucky. In 1789 Abraham and son Joseph are shown. They are also on the 1792 Logan County tax list. (REF: RR July 81 pg 5-Register KY Historical Society Vol 22.) Abraham Jr is shown on the next line of these tax lists all 3 times.

Abraham Sr. was one of the early settlers at Severns Valley Fort (at present day Elizabethtown). Other pioneer families at that fort around 1780 were Haycraft, Helm, Hynes, Vanmeter and Vertees. In 1785 the Raymers were in Nelson County and on the Eastern waters of Nolin River near the Lincoln, Larue and Hodgen families. By 1792 Abraham Sr. and Jr were living on Big Barren River in Warren County (then in Logan County). They received permission to operate a ferry on the Barren River Christmas day of 1792. It was near McFadin's Station near present day Bowling Green and was one of the very first ferries in the new state of Kentucky.

Abraham Raymer Sr. is recorded in history. From - History of Kentucky by Collins (Vol. 2, p.739), we find this amusing story. Four miles above Bowling Green, Kentucky on the river is McFaden's old station. Some stories are connected with it, and one of which we relate: A dashing young Virginian came to the station and bragged that he could outrun any man "in all Kaintuck". McFaden, who was a quizzical old genius, asked if he would run barefoot or shod (shoes), and was answered - barefoot. McFaden said I will set the time and place and will risk a gallon of whiskey that I find a man to beat you. The bet was made and the day fixed. The old hunter Raymer was sent for. The two parties went to the tract selected by McFaden. It was probably the most flinty bed in all the county. Both men started. They had gone but a few yards when the Virginian was compelled to hold up. But as Raymer's feet were as hard as a buffalo's, he kept ahead like a quarter horse, to the great amazement of old McFaden and friends. That ground has since been called "Raymers Race track".

The date above would be 1798. McFaden's Station was the first permanent settlement in Warren and surrounding area and was located near the present Porter Pike.

In 1798 Abraham Raymer Sr. and his wife, Selvalah sold their land in Warren County and moved to Ohio County (now Grayson). Another son, Michael Raymer Sr. lived on his fathers land. Abraham had moved to Arkansas by 1802.

When his estate was being settled in 1809, Phillip "being the third son of Abraham----" was administrator. As we know now, sons # 1&2 (Abraham Jr & Michael) stayed in Kentucky thus, Phillip, who had joined his father in Arkansas was elected to settle the probate matters. "I have only found one record of Phillip here in Warren Co, KY- he was a chain carrier on one of the land surveys of Abraham in Kentucky in late 1790's (could be Sr or Jr). At any rate, Phillip was in Arkansas as late as 1840. --Information from Lloyd Raymer

It is noted that Phillip made such a mess of his father's estate that his sister Catherine joined him and took over as executor.

Why did Abraham go to Arkansas? Did He take Sybilla with him, or did she die in Kentucky? Was her death the reason he went to Arkansas?

Abraham RAYMER was born about 1763 in Bedford County, Pennsylvania. He died about 1845 in Warren (now Edmonson) County. Kentucky. He was a farmer and a ferryman.

Abraham Raymer (Jr) was one of the earliest settlers and land owners in Edmonson County Jr. (often spelled Raimer, Ramer, Raymour). He lived in what is now Edmonson County during the period of 1801-1807 and owned 400 acres on Little Beaver Dam Creek. From 1808 till his death in the 1840's his lands were on the north side of Green River (near the mouth of Bear Creek). Until 1825 this land was in Grayson County but then became Edmonson County. As early as 1814 he owned 560 acres on Green River. By 1817 he owned 700 acres. Most of his lands, however, were centered around the 640 acre tract that had been patented by John Crow (lying on North Bank of Green River).

When Edmonson County was formed in 1825 and the Circuit Court impaneled its first grand jury, Abraham Raymer Jr. was one of the 20 jurors. His death date is not known but was between 1845 and 1849. His last 40-45 years of life was spent in Edmonson County. A great, great, great grandson, Lloyd M. Raymer, lives in the Anna Community of Warren County.
